DETAILED ACTION

1. This action is responsive to communication: application filed on 10/30/01.

Election/Restrictions

2. Applicant's election without traverse of claims 31-36 in Paper No. 3 is acknowledged. Claims 1-30 and 37-81 are withdrawn from consideration.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 31-36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Ito, US# 6,302,795 B1.

As per claim 31, Ito teaches "a portable housing . . . one or more data collection devices; and integrated with said housing, a time-keeping device, a data storage device" (see col. 11, lines 33-48) "a programmable device for correlating all data captured by the data collection device based upon time reported by the time-keeping device and for storing so-correlated data on the storage device" (see col. 7, lines 51-67).

As per claim 32, Ito teaches "associated with the housing at least one input device, the programmable device further operable to use input from each said input device to record time-stamped annotations in the record" (see col. 9, lines 20-39).

As per claim 33, Ito teaches "the programmable device having program code for determining a segment of the record to be uninteresting and to compress the record by deleting or degrading segments so-determined" (see col. 10, lines 1-30).

As per claim 34, Ito teaches "a communications port for transmitting a subset of the record stored on the data storage device" (see col. 6, lines 19-37).

As per claims 36-35, these claims are rejected on grounds corresponding to the arguments given above for rejected claims 31-34 and are similarly rejected.
